Copies of the Minutes of the recent Parish Open Meeting are available at the back of church.

The Parents and First Holy Communion Children would like to thank all the catechists for their help and for the decoration and refreshments provided in the hall afterwards which made the day extra special for the children.

Devotion to Mary – on the first Saturday of each month, the Rosary will be prayed in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 9.30am before mass. Also on Monday and Thursdays after 10am mass. All welcome.

Message from Bishop Stephen

In order to grow as a synodal Church it is important that we all have a chance to pray and discern how the Holy Spirit is inviting us to grow in mission in our parishes and communities. To facilitate this, I together with others, offer an initial Diocesan vision for your prayerful reflection. Our discerned Diocesan commitments are:

- (1) To Walk with Jesus and Enable Others to Encounter Him;
- (2) To grow as One Diocesan Family- Rebuilding Relationships;
- (3) Forming and Developing People for Mission;
- (4) Living Justly and Caring for Our Common Home.

Each of these commitments are developed in the vision. It is not my intention to impose this vision. It is offered for further reflection and I invite all of our parishes and communities to prayerfully reflect on them. We offer accompanying resources and support to enable this reflection. These materials are all available on the diocesan website. With assurances and prayers.

+ Stephen

I am Pleased to announce that Bishop Stephen will be visiting the parish on Sunday 7th July. He will celebrate the 9.30am Mass at St Oswin's and the 11am Mass at St Mary's. We look forward to welcoming him and meeting with him.

Tynemouth Catenian Group: If the recent pulpit talk by the Catenians in all local churches which described how Catholic men meet for mutual support, social and family purposes sparked your interest please contact the following. Or ask any Catenian known to you. We would love to hear from you. Contact:

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:32-34.39-40

Moses reminds the people of the close and loving relationship God established with them, and of the obligations and blessings that flow from such a relationship.

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt? Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today, so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 32

Response: Happy the people the Lord has chosen as his own.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. | 2. By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars.
He spoke; and they came to be.
He commanded; they sprang into being. |
| 3. The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death
To keep them alive in famine, | 4. Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. |

Second Reading

Romans 8:14-17

Through the in-dwelling of the Holy Spirit, we have become children of God and co-heirs with Christ his son.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

Matthew 28:16-20

In his last appearance to his apostles, Jesus commissions them to preach the Gospel to all peoples, and promises to be with them to the end of time.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

Question of the week

(for Further Personal Reflection on these Readings)

How can you live up to your baptismal promises this week?
